

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—Last Tuesday morning about 9 o'clock our citizens were startled by an alarm of fire. A great many persons were in town, the most of whom were attending Court, and as a matter of course, considerable excitement prevailed. Soon a large number of people were on their way to the spot whence the cry of "fire," "fire," proceeded. The local was among the number. Arriving at the large and commodious residence of Dr. J. B. Black, and which was used by him as one of the two hotels of Bolivar, it was plain to be seen that the alarm bell had not been struck without cause. Flames were issuing from the roof near the west chimney, and as the house was a two-story frame considerable difficulty was experienced in gaining a foothold on the burning roof. As soon as possible a ladder was procured, and willing hands rushed to the post of danger, but all to no purpose, save that of doing what could not be done—extinguishing the fire with water thrown from worse than useless buckets. To the eyes of a fireman, without the "all-important machine," the case was hopeless. Soon the fire element burst forth in all its might; men left the roof, and betook themselves to other portions of the building where labor would be of more avail. Porches and sheds were torn down, out-houses protected, and the crumbling edifice emptied of its contents. Fortunately the air was not in motion, and the fire advanced but slowly. Owing to this fact all of the furniture and household effects were saved, though we are sorry to say, from careless handling, in a somewhat damaged condition—always the case where an organized fire company is needed. The building destroyed was worth at least $4,000, upon which there was no insurance.

ORIGIN OF THE FIRE. It seems that a fire, early in the morning, had been started in the grate of the room of the second story looking to the west, and that from the foulness of the chimney, or from a vent in the smoke stack above the mantle, the accident must have originated, for the room in question was seen to be full of smoke, and the flames forced their way out of the roof between the weatherboarding and inside plastering. It was observed that the fire seemed to have originated about the chimney above the grate in the upper room.

SURROUNDING BUILDINGS. For a time the residence of the Rev. Mr. Aeton occupied and used by him as a hotel, situated opposite the burning edifice, was in considerable danger. Owing to the promptness however, of a number of persons who were not afraid to get their "good clothes soiled," no damage was sustained in this quarter. In the south-east corner of the yard, situated about thirty yards from the fire, with large cedar trees between, stood a small frame building occupied by one of our citizens. This structure was also cared for and saved from the devouring flames. But the hardest task of all was to save the cottage immediately opposite the rear portion of the residence, distance only about eight or ten feet. Blankets and carpets were spread upon the roof of the endangered house, which were kept saturated with water, and which we are pleased to state, saved the building, thus reclaiming, as it were, from the "withering tongue of the demon fire," a roof for the family of our distressed and unfortunate fellow citizen.

$3,000 IN MONEY. We learn that Dr. Black, besides losing his magnificent residence, had the double misfortune to sustain a loss of $3,000 in greenback, which, it is supposed, was destroyed by fire or stolen by some miserable scamp while the contents of the house were being removed to a place of safety.

THE FIRE. If an organized fire company had been on hand with only an inferior hand engine the fire could have been subdued in less than ten minutes from the time the alarm was sounded. But you see, kind reader, the "ifs" have it, the fire proved disastrous, and so it will ever be until Bolivar takes a step or two in the line of protection. Seven thousand dollars at one fire—that would purchase two or three fire engines. We are informed by Dr. Black that he will be prepared, by the latter part of the coming week to furnish his friends and the public with hotel accommodations.

UNKNOWN.—An unknown man, aged about 35 years, red hair, of medium size, was found in a field on the lands of Mr. Mayfield, about 9 miles north of this place, on last Friday morning, in a perfectly nude state. When discovered, the poor fellow seemed greatly surprised, and to questions asked him, gave no satisfactory whatever. At one time he said his name was Dedee, and at another that it was Edwards, and that he came from North Carolina. When asked as to how he lost his clothing, he stated that the militia met him on the road and took them from him. As it was clear the unfortunate was deranged, kind hands furnished him with clothing and had him provided for at the poor house, where he is at the present time.

Enterprise is the life-blood of business, and knowing this to be so, Capt. J. W. Youngblood, of the Memphis Avalanche, is here making up a rousing call for the excellent Daily with which he is connected. By arrangements made with the express companies and the establishing of a carrier in Bolivar, our citizens are enabled to have a paper placed in their hands only a few hours after it has passed through the press in the office of publication at Memphis, and that too, at the low price of twenty-five cents per week. This arrangement brings the paper here twenty-four hours ahead of the mails. As the Avalanche is a favorite journal, and is on the white man's side, ably edited, and bound to the core, our friend Youngblood is bound to book many a subscriber's name.

SELECT SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.—From an advertisement which appears elsewhere in this issue of the Bulletin it will be seen that this popular school, lately presided over by Mrs. W. H. Thompson and Miss Safford, has passed under the control of Mrs. William E. Glover and Mrs. William Montgomery, by reason of the fact that Mrs. Thompson goes to join her family at Columbus, while Miss Safford, as we learn, leaves for Georgia, where she is engaged to fill a very important position in one of the best educational institutions in the South. In view of the fact that the successor of the esteemed teacher of the Select School is quite a stranger to our people, and having every reason to know that she will prove entire competency, take this opportunity of stating that Mrs. Glover is a native of North Carolina, raised in Virginia, and educated at the Buckingham Female Academy, which by-the-by, is one of the best schools in the South, and where she graduated in the English and classical courses. As a teacher Mrs. G. has had considerable experience, to which Gen. Williams and Col. Merriweather, of Memphis, besides a host of others, can and most assuredly will, testify. Liable to part with such tutors as Mrs. Thompson and Miss Safford, yet we believe that their successors' noble work will prove satisfactory to all.

CIRCUIT COURT.—This honorable tribunal, Judge Bond presiding, began its October term in the new Baptist church last Monday. The first day was principally consumed in organizing and calling cases. The following named gentlemen compose the Grand Jury: Lem. Gay, foreman, W. G. Moore, Abel Stewart, Alvin Bishop, Mansel Webb, Joseph Wilks, George Halsegrove, Samuel Henson, N. R. Morris, Henry Skinner, A. Sellers, John Murdough, Thomas G. Thompson, J. M. Webb, their sworn officers. The case of the State vs. R. D. Cross was continued, so also was the important case Martin, Weakly & Co. (for the use of John D. Cassey) vs. McPeck and Bostwick; defendants moved for continuance, they being made to furnish money to pay cost. The criminal docket was taken up, and as far as proceeded with, the result was as follows: Alex. Brown, colored, tried and found guilty on two separate indictments for larceny, and in each case sentenced for one year; John Burke, white, found guilty of larceny, one year; Andrew Martin, colored, 14 years of age, found guilty of larceny, one year. Thirteen additional cases are on the docket all of which will be tried at the present term of the court. Quite a penitentiary delegation! In our next issue we will endeavor to report more fully.

PROUD OF IT.—William M. Johnson, the gentleman who represents Hardeman county in the State Legislature, nominated for Senator the Hon. Elijah Walker of Hardin county, and although the choice he made was badly beaten for the position which Brownlow is now to hold, the people are proud of the nomination as well as the nominator. Mr. Johnson is a Conservative, and he represents a decidedly conservative people. We thank our stars that Hardeman county had nothing to do with electing Brownlow to the United States Senate.

QUEER, QUIRKY, QUISICAL, COMIC.—A monkey in a band-box, an elephant without a trunk, a pump without a handle, a woman without words, a doctor without physic, a cat without claws, a store without drawers, a fisherman without bait, pride without hats, a "bull in a china shop," Brownlow in the United States Senate!

Work on the foundation of the new court house is progressing as rapidly as possible. County Court meets next Monday. Interested parties should be on hand.

COMMERCIAL. Latest telegrams report cotton quiet in Liverpool—uplands 8 3/4; in New York a shade lower, uplands 19 1/4; in Memphis, market active, with sales of 1000 bales middling at 16 1/4—gold declined, 138 1/4 bidding at 12 1/4.

In Bolivar, yesterday, middlings were quoted at 12 1/4. Speaking of the money market, the Memphis Public Ledger of yesterday said: $25000 Mass. Central R. R. bonds, second mortgage, sold for 30c.

There is little change in Tennessee money; Dealers bid as follows: For Bank of Tennessee, old issue, 25c; Bank of West Tennessee, 40c; Bank of Chattanooga, 10c; Bank of Middle Tennessee, 90c; City Bank, 60c; Merchants' Bank, 95c; Northern Bank, 90c; Ocoee Bank, 9c; Planters' Bank, 95c; Union Bank, 95c; Shelbyville Bank, 80c; Southern Bank, 20c; Traders' Bank, 90c.
